Martyrs to Headache

Seek relief in vain, until they begin to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Then they regret the years of suffering they might have escaped had they tried this remedy earlier. The trouble was constitutional not local; and, until Ayer's Sarsaparilla did its effective work as an Alterative and Blood Purifier, they were compelled to suffer.

The wife of Samuel Page, 21 Austin st., Lowell, Mass., was, for a long time, subject to severe headaches, the result of stomach and liver disorders. A perfect cure has been effected by Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Frank Roberts, 727 Washington st., Boston, says that he formerly had terrible headaches, and until he took Ayer's Sarsaparilla, never found any medicine that would give Permanent Relief.

"Every Spring, for years," writes Lizzie W. DeVan, 202 Fifth street, Brooklyn, N. Y., "I have had intolerable headaches. I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla last March, and have not had a headache since that time."

"I suffered from headache, indigestion, and debility, and was hardly able to drag myself about the house," writes Mrs. M. M. Lewis, of A. St., Lowell, Mass. "Ayer's Sarsaparilla has worked a marvelous change in my case. I now feel strong and well as ever."

Jonas Garman, Esq., of Lyttle, Pa., writes: "For years I have suffered dreadfully, every Spring, from headache, caused by impurity of the blood and biliousness. It seemed for days and weeks that my head would split open. Nothing relieved me until I took Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has cured me completely."

Mrs. Geneva Belanger, of 24 Bridge st., Springfield, Mass., began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and has suffered for some years from rheumatism, and of the kidneys. Every Spring, also, she was afflicted with headache, loss of appetite, and indigestion. A friend persuaded her to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which benefited her wonderfully. Her health is now perfect. Martyrs to headache should try

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

ILL TAKE WHAT FATHER TAKES

By W. H. ROYLE.

"Twas in the flowery month of June,
The sun was in the west,
A merry, blithe, and gay,
Met at a public feast.

Around the room rich banners spread,
The guests sat down to dine,
Friend greeted friend with friendly words,
Until that festive day.

The board was filled with choice fare,
The guests sat down to dine,
Some called for "bitter," some for "stout,"
And some for "red wine."

Among this joyful company,
A modest youth appeared,
Scarcely sixteen years of age,
No one seemed to heed.

An empty glass before the youth,
Soon drew the waiter near,
"What will you take, sir?" he inquired,
"Stout, bitter, mild, or clear?"

"We've first supplies of foreign port,
We've first class wine and brandy,
The youth with guileless look replied,
"I'll take what father takes."

Swift as an arrow went the words,
Into his father's ear,
And soon a conflict deep and strong
Awoke terrific fear.

The father looked upon his son,
Then gazed upon his wine,
"Oh, God!" he thought, "he is to taste,
Who could the end divine?"

Have I not seen the strongest fall,
The fairest led astray?
And shall I on my only son
Bestow a curse today?

No; heaven forbid! "Here, waiter, bring
Bright water unto me,
My son will take what father takes:
My drink shall water be."

AMY'S BROTHER PHIL.

ALICE L. SIMPSON.

"Why sister, little sister, you're a funny girl to care!" said Phil.

Her real name was Amy. Nobody but Phil called her "little sister." She liked that name and she liked him—very much. Phil had called her that for four years, she was his sister, then; he was fourteen. At that time, his father and her mother married. So Phil was, in truth, her step-brother. He was kind, always; never snubbed her for other girls; made her pretty presents; teased her some, petted her more. It was a household fact that Amy and Phil "got on" splendidly together.

"I suppose if you had been big and bold I should have hated you; but you ever; to watch the girls, with hair stretched to the tips of their heads, feel shyly after tormenting hair-pins; to be, in fact, the central figure in the brightness and the merriment, and drop one's pretty courtesies and Martha Washington remarks. What girls do not enjoy the place of honor?

The Martha Washington reception was surely a success. The central wall—the octagon—was gay with lights and brightly music, while down the long halls where the promenaders went, were softer lights from Chinese lanterns. There were stands of blossoming plants, and sheltered nooks adorned with seats and pictures. Into one of these quiet nooks at length slipped Amy, so tired that she hoped no one would find her for awhile. The music stopped. She noticed that the hands of the big hall clock pointed to half past ten. And then she heard the train come roaring round the curve, and thought, "Phil won't come till the next one. 'Phil'—what was that? This nameless terror—she had never felt it in her life before. She struggled against it. 'I am tired,' she tried to say; but the terror deepened—thought—of Phil—danger! She clasped her hand over her scared eyes, and murmured: "O God! be good to brother Phil!" The feeling came and went so suddenly, she laughed two minutes after, and thought, "I'd better be at home, abed. The idea of such hypnos!" Then "George Washington" came and said, "The company is nearly gone; shall we go too?"

The Blair Education Bill Not Dead.

[The Latest from Washington.]

One of the methods of opposition to the Educational Bill was to declare the measure dying or dead, and to suppress all evidence to the contrary as far as possible, while the great debate for it was going on in the United States Senate, and every objection was there being by southern as well as northern men, whom this nation honors as wise patriots.

The charm of novelty no longer lingers at its discussion; but senators on the floor, and the crowded galleries listen with wrapt attention to the masterly speech of Senator Evans, of New York, as he exposed the sophistry of the false claim that it is "unconstitutional" for the Federal Government to give of its surplus wealth for the education of the neglected children of our land, who other wise will grow into a citizenship that will imperil the Government itself.

But the bill is far from dead. Not all of the old members who were on the committee in the 45th Congress, and who are appointed to the same post in the 50th are enemies of this bill, and some new and determined men have been added to their number, who will vigorously oppose the old smothering method. Neither the bill nor its friends in or out of Congress are dead, they have no idea of retreating and will soon be heard from again.

M. H. HUNT.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Salt, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold in my store is sold on credit. On one man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of ten years standing." Abraham Har, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony to the fact that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at any Drug Store.

The Gold Dollar in Cuba.

There is a difference in the value of dollars—gold and paper dollars. The Spanish gold dollar is about equal in value to our gold or greenbacks, but their paper dollar is only worth about forty cents of our money, or their own gold. For a $5 greenback you can get $12.50 of Spanish money. When you examine the wine list you are struck for the moment with the exceedingly low price of the French wines—St. Julian claret, $1, and Veuve Clicquot champagne, $4, for example. "Come," you may argue, "I can easily afford to celebrate my first visit to Havana in a bottle of Chateau Margaux or Pommery Sec." Possibly you have not noticed a little word of three letters at the head of the price list. It reads, "and if you indulge in a $4 bottle without noticing this word, instead of paying $1.00, as you may have expected, you will find, on tendering a $5 greenback in payment, that you will receive in change only $1. But it is a gold dollar."—M. P. in Home Journal.

Happy Homes.

Much has been written and said about how to make home happy. The moralist and the preacher have harked back to the old story of a good mother and a good father. But the philosophers have gone far out of their way to account for the prevalence of dissatisfied couples and unhappy homes, and have overlooked the chief cause. Most of the unhappiness of married life can be traced directly to those rather trivial political questions, to which women are subject. In nine cases out of ten the trouble is a "female complaint." A trial of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will produce more domestic happiness than a million sermons or philosophical treatises. It cures all those peculiar weaknesses and ailments incident to womanhood. It is the only medicine sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. See guarantee printed on wrapper enclosing bottle.

The Royal Irish Constabulary.

The men who compose it are almost exclusively Irish, for the most part the sons of Irish farmers or tradesmen, drawn from all parts of the country, irrespective of creed. Catholics, Protestants and Presbyterians are equally welcome to its ranks, but perhaps the proportion of the first named religion is about 73 per cent. of the total strength; they are all men who, before enrollment, must show that they possess a fair education, and whose character has been carefully inquired into; they enroll voluntarily and eagerly, and beyond the requirements of one month's notice are under no obligation to remain. As a rule they do remain for many years, marry Irish women, and when discharged settle in Ireland and possess the good will of the people.—Murray's Magazine.

lie treasury would destroy the spirit of "self help" in the people receiving them. Federal aid for the educational improvement of future men and women is equally safe, and far more necessary, in view of the fact that there are now no schools for five twelfths of the school population of this republic.

Applause rang through the crowded galleries as the President of the Senate declared the bill there passed. Then the spectators crowded into the halls. A man among them was heard to say, in confident tones, that showed his opinion was born of the wish "That's the last of that bill. It goes now to the House Committee on Education, Speaker Carlisle has made that up against it; it's dead and buried there. The newspapers have echoed the same opinion."

But the bill is far from dead. Not all of the old members who were on the committee in the 45th Congress, and who are appointed to the same post in the 50th are enemies of this bill, and some new and determined men have been added to their number, who will vigorously oppose the old smothering method. WINCHESTER.

About everyone appears to be satisfied with the outcome of the late Town Meeting.

Fast Day was celebrated in good shape by Golden Light Lodge of Good Templars.

Our people are to have less rum sold in this town this year or know the reason why.

The Skillings mansion situated in Rangeley, which cost $50,000, is to be rented this summer.

Next Friday evening, April 13, the young Catholic ladies of this place will hold a levee in Lyceum Hall.

How long will this town be satisfied to draw her street illuminating material from Arlington? The town is nearly 40 years old and ought to be able to go alone.

The Town Hall is booming and will soon be ready for occupancy. The town officials will be glad to go in and be comfortably settled in a home of their own.

The Democrats will hold a caucus to-night but as the Democrats of Winchester do not amount to much politically or numerically the caucus will not be an alarming affair.

Is John T. Wilson the only man in Winchester who can preside over a caucus or Town Meeting, or be elected to those places? If so, it is not very complimentary to Winchester.

The Selectmen have received a petition from the B. & M. RR. Corporation containing a list of 55 men for railroad policemen. The Selectmen voted to appoint the list in accordance with the prayer of the Corporation.

Mr. William Walbridge, of the well known firm of carpet and furniture dealers on Washington street, Boston, received a handsome vote for member of the School Board although he was not a candidate. If he had been in the field his popularity would have carried him through with ease.

The Winchester Firemen's Relief Association has been organized by the choice of the following officers: President, Charles P. Symmes; Vice President, W. H. Brodick; Treasurer, F. H. Haley; Secretary, A. E. Ayer. A constitution and by-laws have been adopted. It is a worthy object and is entitled to receive the financial consideration of the community.

The Winchester Mutual Benefit Association it is learned that the balance on hand March 19 was $161.65; income from assessments, $333.10; admission fees, $52; interest, $5.10; total, $551.85. Disbursements: for losses, two claims, $326; all other expenditures, printing, $21.50; postage, $3.40; advertising, $2. Balance on hand March 19, $145. There were twenty-six members admitted during the year, and the total membership is 171. There have been six deaths benefits paid since its organization in 1883, which speaks well for the health of the members. The officers are: President, D. N. Skillings; Vice President, E. A. Smith; Secretary, W. A. Snow; Treasurer, George F. Hawley; Directors, H. C. Miller, P. Brown, F. C. Manchester, J. P. Boutwell, W. M. Belcher, E. H. Rice, S. C. Small, H. M. Shepard, H. F. Johnson.—Star.

The following appointments have been made by the selectmen thus far: Field Drivers, Fred M. Symmes, Thomas Little, W. H. Ralston, A. McElhany; Fence Viewers, Charles H. Dwyer, Luther Richardson; Engineers of Fire Department, Charles F. Symmes, A. Eugene Ayer, John Lynch; Police, J. W. Richardson, Chief; other officers not yet appointed awaiting the wish of the Chief as to whom he would like for subordinates; Special Police, Asa Locke, W. H. Ralston, H. W. Plummer, T. H. Undertakers, J. D. Sharon, John S. Sharon; Sup't. of Street Lights, H. A. Emerson, Josiah Hovey; Forest Fire Wards, C. T. Symmes, A. E. Ayer, John Lynch.

Burlington.

The Sunday School held one of their most successful concerts in the church, Sunday evening. The subject was "Easter Day" and the selections of Scripture, poetry, and music were appropriate to the occasion. The younger scholars deserved praise for their prompt recitations. The decorations were especially beautiful. At the sides of the desk, were rare plants in pots contributed by Mr. J. W. Hutchinson. On the front of the desk was a tasteful star of immortelles, and on the piano, a bouquet of handsome cut flowers, from the greenhouse of Mr. C. H. Walker.

Literary Notices.

Easter Lilies is the exquisitely beautiful frontpiece of the April number of THE CENTURY, every page of which is splendidly illustrated by dainty pictures of Easter time and scenes. Among a long list of interesting articles are: An Easter Text, Easter Eggs, Two Painters and their Pets, Ballads of Old London Bridge, My Uncle Florimond, April Fools Day, Effective Decoration, Princes, Those Cousins of Mabel's, All Around an Old Meeting-house, Seven Punkin Pies, and many others equally entertaining. A bit of a poem called "Kitty in the Rain," quaintly illustrated, by Miss Hannah R. Hudson of Canal street in this town, is published in the number.

The April number of THE CENTURY closes the thirty-fifth half yearly volume. The first article is by Edward L. Wilson, the well-known photographer, and is descriptive of the natural and other features of Palestine. From Dan to Beersheba. The article has a great number of illustrations, mainly from photographs, and will be of special interest to the teachers and students of the International Sunday School Lessons.

Other papers in the number, a half dozen or more of which are finely illustrated, are: The Round Up by Theodore Roosevelt who owns and personally carries on a large cattle ranch in Montana; The American Inventors of the Telephone, The Graysons, The Uprising, which is a history of the state of the nation during the four or five days immediately following President Lincoln's first call on the Governors of the States for troops to protect the Federal Capitol and quell the Rebellion; another article on the Russian Penal Code, Memoranda of the Civil War, poetry, and the various Editorial Departments.

The score or more of helpful hints and suggestions for manuscript-makers that are printed in the April number of THE CENTURY, would alone make the magazine invaluable to all who write. With them, however, are given bright and helpful articles on Revision, Preparation for Dramatic Criticism, How to Write Short Stories, Scoring a Ball Game, Labor Reporting, Method Needed in Literary Work, A Housewife's Mistake, The Local Press, and Type-Writing and Short-hand, in much other interesting matter. In answer to queries from subscribers there is given a deal of information on methods and details of literary work that can be found nowhere else, and there is a full list of the literary articles in newspapers and magazines printed during the month of April.

The year's subscription price is one dollar. Address: THE WRITER, P. O. Box 1,905, Boston, Mass.

GRAND OPENING

—OF—

Fine Boots, Shoes and Slippers,

—IN—

DOW'S BLOCK, MAIN STREET,

WOBURN,

SATURDAY, APRIL 7.

AT 1.30 P. M. ALL ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND.

I. E. & L. C. WILLIAMS.

An easy way of selecting a cook is discovered by a French scientist. He says, if in cleaning a plate, the cook moves her hand from left to right, or in the direction of the hands of a watch, she may be trusted; if the other way, she is certain to be stupid and incapable. Centrifugal movements, he says, are characteristic of intelligence and higher development; centrifugal are a mark of incomplete evolution.

A young lady of New Orleans earns a living by writing obituary poetry. She has the happy faculty of versifying other people's woes "with a graceful mournfulness and dejection that is highly satisfactory to the principals," as a local paper expresses it.

"Chippman's Liver Pills" the best in the world. Never gripe or make you sick. They are purely vegetable and will surely cure your bilious trouble. All who use them speak well of them. Sold by all druggists.

A MISUNDERSTANDING.

"Why do you look so sad, so anxious, so careworn, old fellow? Have you not a friend or is it because it is Lent?"

Yes, you've struck it, Charlie, because it is Lent—my last dollar—and I am suffering so from DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION.

Dr. Mark B. Woodbury's Dyppepsia Killers, and they always relieve me no matter how much I suffer. Little lozenges to carry in your vest pocket, and they will cure you in ten days.

Do not neglect the use of rain water from roofs. Warranted fire & water proof.

Original cost no more than ordinary paint. For smokestacks, boilers, tubing and iron work of every kind. Nothing kills it. Contains no oil, is always black, and one coat will protect for ten years.

POOR RICHARD, "Many words won't fill a bushel." We do not there, intend to use any such profane words when speaking of the merits of FOULODS' WHEAT GERM MEAL.

For it is not necessary. It stands on its own merits and speaks for itself. Ask any one who has used it and they will tell you it is the BEST BREAKFAST CRACKER in the market. It makes a breakfast fit for a king. It is delicious to the taste, and one never tires of it as they often do of oatmeal. Everyone should use it. 25c. packages 10 cents. Sold everywhere. Try it.

THE JOURNAL is for sale at the stores of Sparrow Horton, 105 Main Street, C. R. Brown, 128 Main Street, John Cummings, 51, Cummingsville, Sam E. Wyman, W. A. Hanson, North Woburn, and at G. P. Brown's, Winchester.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All advertisements, to insure insertion in this paper, must be handed in as early as 10 o'clock on Thursday forenoon.

Day before yesterday we received from the Secretary of the Home Market Club of Boston a pamphlet which ought to be read by every voter in our land between this and next November. It is entitled "Free Raw Materials Exposed" and contains the speeches made by Senator John Sherman and Representative Nathan Coffey and William McKinley before the Club at a banquet given at Hotel Vendome on February 9 last past on the question so intimately connected with the progress and prosperity of this Nation. The nonsense embodied in the phrase of "free raw materials" as used by the tariff "reformers" (which is only another name for free-traders) is fully and handsomely exposed in each of these speeches, for which reason and because we want to see the people standing on the right ground respecting the tariff question and voting intelligently on it we commend this pamphlet to the careful study of the JOURNAL's readers and friends. Possibly within a week or so free copies of the same may be obtained at this office.

A wonderful revolution of sentiment respecting elevated roads and rapid transit took place in the Legislature last week. The Meigs bill was put through in very nearly the shape the attorney asked for, or in as favorable a condition as they could reasonably expect, which was followed by friendly action on other bills for elevated roads. This was a turn entirely unlooked for by people in the "speculator" world. Nothing more than the West End Street Railway Company must have suddenly collapsed, or else the Legislature is trying to atone for some of its misdeeds in the past. We are right glad to see our law-makers getting on to the right track in this business of rapid passenger travel for Boston for it means better and cheaper accommodations in the near future for those who patronize railroads, both street and steam.

Our General Court might dissolve and go home now without doing any violence to the interests of the State. It has been in session nearly five months which is a much longer period than Legislatures ought to be allowed to sit in this Commonwealth. States, in comparison with which our assemblies would not have much to boast of, manage to get along quite comfortably on one session of the Legislature in two years and each session limited to 90 or 100 days, at that. Possibly Massachusetts would be full as well off if such were the law within her borders.

During the first part of the present Legislature Senator Gilman lived up so nearly to his promises made in the campaign last fall that the Arlington Advertiser abandoned its antagonistic attitude towards him, and said some complimentary things about him. But he soon fell from grace, and now the Advertiser regrets its hasty change of front and wishes it had extended the period of Gilman's probation to the end of the session at least. The simple fact is, Senator Gilman is in sympathy with, and represents the ruin element in Middlesex county.

Since it has become settled that Governor Ames will be a candidate for reelection in July, and that he is one of the booms of other aspirants for his place. Some think the Gov. will be a candidate to fill Gov. Long's seat in Congress, but that is not likely if his feelings about it are correctly understood and reported. At all events, the people here want him for Governor another term, and brother Ames never "goes back" on the people.

Representative Thomas Reed of the First Maine District closed the tariff debate last Saturday night by far the ablest speech of the nearly 150 delivered on the subject and the most brilliant he ever made in or out of Congress. It was a strong, clear, logical argument in support of home protection which the two traders may attempt to pull to pieces but in doing so will get their labor for their pains. There is no abler man in Congress than Mr. Reed.

It is a cold day for Rev. M. J. Savary when he doesn't attend a sermon in Monday's Town Herald, or a "sizing editorial" in the Boston Globe. One hour must be sounded even if one has to blow it himself.

LOCAL NEWS.

Battalion Notes.

The annual prize drill of the boys will be held in the month of June. Since the Battalion was formed last fall the boys have made good progress and a fine showing is expected of them at their prize drill.

The boys will make their first out-door appearance on Memorial Day and if they don't make a fine showing it will be because they hold the high standard of last Tuesday afternoon.

Last Friday the commissioned officers went to Boston to see the annual prize drill of the Boston School Regiment and were assigned prominent positions with the Boston School Committee on the Common.

The rest of the guns for the battalion arrived last week. Now the boys can be drilled in the month of June. Since the Battalion was formed last fall the boys have made good progress and a fine showing is expected of them at their prize drill.

Last Tuesday afternoon the inspection of the Battalion took place in the High School Hall and although the affair was strictly private the platform was filled with guests. On it were Messrs. Frank Richardson, John W. Johnson, S. F. Truitt, Henry M. Adams and some others. Littlefield, Otis Blanchard, Geo. Ferguson, W. D. Davis, W. Kenney, E. H. Loomis, J. C. Floyd, George B. Perkins, Herbert B. Dow, Samuel W. Benson, and others.

At 4.15 the drill took place and the boys were drilled in the month of June. Since the Battalion was formed last fall the boys have made good progress and a fine showing is expected of them at their prize drill.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

The Great and General Court of Massachusetts for 1888 adjourned ad sine die Tuesday evening after a session of about five months. The common impression is that this country is safe and will now breathe easier.

The verdict of all fair minded people is that it has been a working session, and that it has accomplished more good, solid legislation than any of its predecessors for years past. Both branches were composed of men of much above ordinary ability, industry and regard for the interests of the people, and their record shows a large amount of good work done. A great number of matters of deep interest to the State were before the Court nearly all of which were disposed of in the best manner and to the satisfaction of the public at large. On the score of temperance legislation the Court did not only and happily disappointed the friends of the cause. On this head we quote with pleasure from the New York Observer of last week, and with it close our comments on the session, although many other things might justly be said in its favor:

The Massachusetts Legislature has made a splendid record for itself on the temperance question during the present session. It has adopted a resolution for the submission of a prohibitory amendment to the people. It has passed a bill making the minimum fee for a liquor license $1000, and for an ale and beer license $250. It has also passed bills restricting the number of saloons to one for every 1000 of the population, forbidding the leasing of a saloon for a dwelling house or place having interior communication with the dwelling or family of a tenant, and prohibiting the sale of liquor on Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, Decoration Day, and all election days, and declaring that all beverages containing one per cent. of alcohol are intoxicating within the meaning of the Massachusetts law. The State is fortunate in having an independent, unprejudiced and able man for Governor, who is in accord with the majority in the Legislature. All the bills mentioned have therefore become laws.

THE CITY CHARTER.

Glancing over the business columns of the JOURNAL, the reader will perceive that the Board of Selectmen have called a Town Meeting for the purpose of considering and disposing of the charter for a city which the Legislature has recently granted to Woburn. Particular attention is called to this, by reason of the importance of a thorough study of the matter by the voters before action is taken on it. The document has been changed in any essential particular since it left the hands of the intelligent committee who framed and got it ready for the Legislature, and as copies were widely distributed on completion of the work its character should be tolerably well understood.

There has been a disposition on the part of a few citizens from the start to throw cold water on the scheme of making a city of Woburn but they have not dared to oppose it openly because of the very strong public sentiment in its favor. Generally pure selfishness has been at the bottom of such opposition, therefore, that being well understood, it has gained no friends nor made any headway to speak of. The charter is a good one. It is an organic law having practical sense at the bottom of it. Besides, the members of the High School, who are the only ones who have admitted that it is a high time our local government was changed for something less cumbersome and liable to abuse than the present one, that the interests of the community will be better served under city rule than otherwise, than we advise the voters of Woburn to attend the Town Meeting in full force and vote to accept the charter.

BLAINE MEANT IT.

The JOURNAL has contended all along that Mr. Blaine meant precisely what he said in his Florence letter of some months since declining a nomination to the presidency, and now he has written another column after another, in which he virtually admitted that he is the political slyster which Democratic journals and speakers declare him to be. The course of these people has been anything but complimentary to the integrity of Mr. Blaine and it is sincerely hoped that they will now stop their chatter.

Mr. Blaine is honorable and true from centre to circumference; when he wrote the Florence letter he meant just what he said and it is an aspersion on his good name and high character to think or say otherwise.

RESIGNED.

This community, especially those who have business before the Fourth District Court, will read with surprise and regret the letter of resignation of its accomplished Clerk, Edward E. Johnson, Esq., in the columns of to-day's JOURNAL. He was appointed to the position at the organization of the Court six years ago, and during this long period of service he has given the best satisfaction to the Bar, suitors and all concerned. He has been a courteous, obliging, hard-working Clerk, ready at all times to listen, advise and serve the public, and it is very certain his resignation will cause sincere and general regret.

The Democratic National convention will be held at St. Louis next week. It is a foregone conclusion that Charles F. Johnson, who has been nominated, and Speaker Carlisle is thought to have the inside track for the second place. In that case, as in 1884, the small end of the ticket will be much the largest.

The Gresham tidal wave in the great and mighty West increases in volume as it rolls along. It is sweeping everything before it, and it looks very much as though Gresham would receive the Republican nomination and be the next President of the U. S.

General Phil Sheridan, who was suddenly stricken down with severe illness a week ago, is still in a very dangerous condition. The reports of the doctors afford but slim grounds on which to hope for his recovery.

We are under obligations to Senator Palmer of this District for valuable State documents of recent publication. He will please accept thanks for the same.

—Rev James Fowle, whose departure from his missionary home in Syria the JOURNAL mentioned not long since, arrived here several days ago in good mental and physical condition. He has been a long while in the foreign mission field and has met with good success. He was soon to be back home here by hosts of warm friends and near relatives.

—The two most prominent events of this afternoon and evening are first, a lecture before the Woman's Club by Lucy Stone Blackwell, the eminent writer and reformer; and, second, the address of Rev. D. W. Dunbar, City Missionary, at the Congregational church, on the "Fresh Air Fund," and "Rosemary Cottage," located down in Elliot, York county, Maine. Both will be worth hearing.

—Though Mr. F. H. Lewis has been established in his new quarters—Savings Bank Building—several weeks, he has not yet completed the furnishing of his Music School, which, when finished, will prove very attractive. A formal dedication of the Rooms will not take place till early fall. Personally selected by the Board of Education, the school is being fitted up with the most modern and complete musical apparatus. —The meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trade and Commerce, held last Tuesday evening, was an unusually large attendance. The Railroad Committee were instructed to report on the proposed extension of the Boston & Maine at an early day in relation to several matters, among them: more trains from here northward; fares; the street on the west side of the station, etc. The Committee were also directed to call in the services of the State Railroad Commission, and to see that the secure rights from the Superintendent. The Board means business.

—As Mr. Nathan J. Melendy stood on a painter's staging near the ridgepole of the JOURNAL office the other day admiring, open mouthed and wide-eyed, the work of painting he and his men were doing on the building, a twenty-dollar set of store teeth dropped from their place in his mouth and falling on the hard pavement below. The teeth were broken into infinitesimal fragments, to Nathan's infinite surprise and disgust. WINCHESTER.

Friends from the Berkshires, Boston, visited Mrs. General Corne last week.

A new building is soon to be erected at the Mystic Sewer Works by the Boston Water Board.

A meeting was held last Friday evening at Livingston Hall by gentlemen interested in organizing a tribe of Red Men in this village.

Mr. Samuel Symmes don't like the location of the street railroad nor the way it is being constructed. If there weren't somebody to find fault with the new road, the world this would be, to be sure.

Men of Winchester have a plenty of money and they ought to give some of it to the Band boys to enable them to buy uniforms and have other things that no well regulated Brass Band should be without.

It is strongly rumored that the person who started the new paper here now wishes he hadn't. I learn, with deep regret of course, that he has decided to quit. The Star carries too many good for the new concern.

Mr. Jacob M. Ellis of your town has contracted to do the stone and other mason work on the new building to be erected on the corner of Church and Main streets. He does most all of that kind of work we have here.

The temperance people in town are perfectly satisfied with the liquor license in town. They say the town has never been so free of the illegal traffic as at present. Star. None are so blind as those who do not want to see.

If I was in Rev. Mr. Seymour's place I wouldn't bite off my nose to spite my face. I'd take with the offer of the Society of free house rent and two months' salary so quick it would make their hair curl. But then, I'm not a minister of the gospel and don't lay claim to any more goodness than the law allows.

Parties owning the Somerville Electric Light Company have purchased a controlling interest in the electric plant in Woburn, and propose to thoroughly reorganize the concern and enlarge its capacity so as to supply electric light from a central station in Woburn to Montvale, North Woburn, Stoneham and Winchester. Star.

Last Monday week Mrs. C. A. Cazier, a most estimable lady and a lover of juvenile humanity, gave a large company of children a May-party at her beautiful home in Rangleway, with which they were overjoyed. Everything was done by her sister, the small people very happy and she succeeded in every particular—it was the happiest party of the season.

Memorial Day was duly observed here. The weather was fine and the occasion appeared to be one of the best. A. D. Vein Post, 148, Commander Joseph McConville, accompanied by the Maplewood brass band, marched to the new Town Hall, where Rev. C. E. Jefferson delivered an address. The Wildwood and Catholic cemeteries were visited, and the graves of 40 soldiers and sailors decorated.

The whole town is looking beautiful this spring now that the grass and fruit blossoms have made their appearance. The weather, to be sure, has been cold and the spring "backyard" is still the grass is all the thicker, greener and more lovely for it, the deep emerald of the growing leaves lovelier, and the pink of the apple-blossoms richer for the frequent chilly winds of the month. Winchester has received her share of the benefit of them and is more beautiful than ever before.

The street railroad will be finished to Symmes' Corner by next Saturday night, and it is a good thing. Every body who is done in apple-pie style. Col. Nat. Richardson, Superintendent of Streets, is following right behind with a gang of men and horses and building the best piece of highway there is in Winchester. The No. 30 St. Ry. Co. ought to change the location of the line from Symmes' Corner to the Medford line and put it into the centre of the street. The Selectmen ought to have looked after that. It is thought the Co. will comply with the universal wish here and change the location.

The picnic season is in preparation, as one might conclude from a new receipt for sandwiches. Spread your bread with butter and put a good layer of ham, the slices of raw beef chopped very fine, a slice or two of chopped raw onions and green leaves. This sandwich will make the dullest picnic an appetizing occasion.

WINCHESTER.

Our public schools will close for the year on June 29.

The building of the Winchester Furniture Factory is well advanced and makes a substantial edifice.

The interest in the Base Ball Club is steadily increasing and their admirers amount to quite a large number.

Legal notices published in either of the alleged Winchester papers will not stand law—they are not printed in this town.

Sup. Hunt was recently elected a member of the Executive committee of the School Superintendents' Association, in Boston.

Last week the Star saw Mr. Thaddeus Parker at work in his garden although he is almost 95 years old. He is as smart as a cricket.

The two points of the horse railroad are rapidly nearing each other and it is thought that they will have joined by the latter part of next week.

Leading people here have about completed the organization of a Lodge of New England Order of Protection—a "new thing under the sun."

The tennis season will be opened here with a tourney by the Wednesday Tennis Club. This Club enjoys an enviable reputation among the fraternity.

Rev. J. P. Newton of Washington has come to Europe and will be absent for Mr. Seymour, late of the Congregational church here, will fill his pulpit.

Boston Courier: The society people of Winchester held a German in Rangley Hall, Tuesday evening, and the affair was one of the pleasantest of the season.

The new chairs for the Town Hall have arrived and are being placed in position. They are comfortable seats of the folding pattern and are strong in tiers of four.

H. B. Payne and Joseph Farrington, journeymen, have been selected to appear at the opening of the Superior Court at Cambridge on next Tuesday morning and report for duty.

If there was ever any need of a live, active, aggressive and successful Village Improvement Society in this town it is now. Why not get Mr. Tremblay back into the President's chair?

A meeting is advertised for this evening in Livingston Hall for the purpose of perfecting the organization of a Tribe of Red Men. They ought to get Mr. Mark Allen down here to help them.

By tomorrow night with the help of Providence, the electric lights are expected to start. The Company have been set back several times but it looks now as though their perseverance will be crowned with success. Hope so at any rate.

Day after tomorrow is to be observed at the Highland Chapel as Children's Day and everything will be done by teachers, superintendent, and all the business establishments here. The most of our inhabitants don't want any more and would be glad to get of what we now have.

Mr. S. W. Twombly and family took possession of their new residence last night and slept in it that night for the first time. It is pleasantly located on the West Side and one of the best houses in town, containing all modern improvements and conveniences.

The latest journalistic venture is not a financial success I am told. The proprietor fails, to his sorrow, that the Star and Woburn papers well supplied the demand for local publications, and that there was really no need of this last candidate for honor and puff.

It is reported that the Electric Light Company are trying to buy or have already bought, Russell's Hill, on which to erect a plant. The site is a good one and is centrally located between Woburn, Winchester, Stoneham, and Lexington to which towns they expect to furnish light.

It is expected that Judge Littlefield will take Judge Converse's place on the bench of the Fourth District Court, Woburn, during the latter's absence in Europe this summer. Mr. Littlefield is an able lawyer and his presiding will give added grace and tone to this branch of justice.—Star, Oct.

A temperance mission of four nights was closed at St. Mary's Catholic Church last Wednesday night. The meetings have been well attended and although drunkenness is a danger in Winchester Father Daly believes in the old doctrine that "an ounce of prevention is worth more than a pound of cure" and acted accordingly.

The particular attention of the readers of the Journal is directed to the advertisement of a Grand Concert to be given in the New Town Hall, Winchester, on Friday evening, by the Lotus Glee Club and Boston Ideal Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar Club—the finest musical combination on the road. It has given concerts in the neighboring towns this season and everybody has been delighted with their fine vocal and instrumental performances. Read the notice.

A meeting of the Selectmen was held last Monday afternoon at which the horse railroad directors were present and voluntarily changed the location of their tracks from the side to the centre of the street.

This action on the part of the directors is very kind, and the people are grateful to them. The proposed town meeting to change the location of the tracks is now unnecessary and the Selectmen are happy. They, of course, could not go back on their contract with the Company and the act on the part of the Company is fully appreciated by them.

What Are These Impurities?

The report of the Ohio State Dairy and Food Commission on baking powders shows a large amount of residuum or impurity to exist in many of these articles. The figures given by the Commission are as follows:

NAME.	IMPURITIES OR RESIDUUM.
Cleveland's	30.18 per cent.
Zipp's Crystal	11.99 "
Dr. Price's	12.60 "
Forest City	24.04 "
Silver Star	21.28 "
De Land's	32.32 "
Holland's	35.49 "

The question naturally arises in the minds of thoughtful consumers, of what does this impurity or residuum consist? In the case of the first named powder there has been recently given the result of an analysis made by Prof. C. F. Chandler, of Columbia College, late member of the New York State Board of Health, which partially supplies the missing information, and as the manufacturers of this particular powder are continuously calling for the publication of all the ingredients used in baking powders, there can be no objection to its statement here. Among the impurities Prof. Chandler found Cleveland's powder to contain a large amount of Rochelle Salts, 5.49 per cent. of which, alumina, starch and water, in quantities not stated. Alum is a substance declared by the highest authorities to be hurtful. If the balance of this residuum in all powders named is made up largely of alum, as it is known to be in some, the public would like to know it. Another official test that shall go quite to the bottom of the matter seems to be demanded.

Burlington.

The schools close on Thursday and Friday of next week.

Children's Sunday will be observed here, next Sunday morning.

The soldiers' graves in the cemetery were decorated by the G. A. R. on Monday.

Mr. H. Kelley is thinking of removing his half of the house owned jointly by him and Mr. J. B. Stedman and workmen are engaged in the work.

On Tuesday evening of last week, the boarders residing with Mrs. P. Rogan surprised her very much by the present of a handsome silver cake basket. A pleasant evening was passed with mirth and sociability. A nice collation was served and enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Rogan is very popular as a boarder. Those living with her were glad to give her substantial proof of their gratitude for her kindness.

EDITOR WOBURN JOURNAL: A meeting was held on last Thursday evening, May 31, at Mr. James Carroll's hotel on Main street, when and where it was decided to form a Foot Ball Club to be called the Woburn Rangers. Most of those present were old players under association rules both in England and Scotland.

It was also decided to hold a meeting on Thursday evening June 7, at 8 o'clock, which all interested in the game are earnestly solicited to attend.

FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1888.

The Journal is for sale at the stores of Sparrow Horton, 105 Main street; and at the stores of John Cummings, 22, Commercial street; John Cummings, 22, Commercial street; E. Wyman, W. A. Hanson, North Woburn, and at G. P. Brown's, Winchester.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All advertisements to insure insertion in this paper, must be handed in as early as 10 o'clock on Thursday forenoon.

ERRATA.

In an editorial last week's JOURNAL respecting the Salvation Army arrest, etc., we stated that, when the letter of Mr. John L. Munroe was received a member of the Board suggested that the matter be referred to the Town Solicitor. By way of correction we now state that the suggestion was not addressed to fellow members nor at the time indicated, and in point of fact few if any of the members were aware that it had been made.

Again, we said it had been stated that Messrs. Kimball and Cottle were the authors of the report of the Police Committee. So it had; but we have since been informed by a member of the Committee that the report was the work of all the members, and was made on the motion of Mr. Curran. Our statement then were as applicable to the three Catholics as the two Protestants on the Committee, and in this respect was erroneous.

From a personal of the article it would be inferred that the Police Committee acted hastily on the petition. On the other hand, it was in their possession over a week, and the report was made after due deliberation.

These errors have been pointed out to us by Mr. Kimball, Chairman of the Committee, to whom he thinks they did injustice, and the corrections are made with pleasure, because the JOURNAL would willfully misrepresent no one.

THE CONVENTION.

Up to the date of going to press no nomination for President had been made at Chicago by the National Republican convention, or if one had been no news of it had reached the East. The convention is a harmonious and enthusiastic one. Despite the fact that the name of Blaine's name cuts no figure in it, which is in conformity to his wishes. At last accounts Harrison's chances for the Presidency were rather above an average.

There was a big crowd in attendance at the District Court last Wednesday to hear the trial of Capt. Edmund of the Salvation Army for disturbing the peace of this quiet and restful community by a religious parade. It was a singular spectacle in this quiet town.

Last Monday Mrs. J. H. Parker made a large mark-down in the prices of her bonnets and laces, which was in accordance with her annual custom. These goods, which she had bought at a very low price, were bought at her popular millinery parlors at about half of their cost two weeks ago.

From the appearance of things we should say that King & Franklin's Wild West show, before a fair audience, was a big thing. They certainly advertise a rare exhibition of performing animals and other attractive features which will doubtless draw great crowds. The show is full of big posters that tell all about the great show.

The Republicans of Winchester-wide-awake ones are too well held a ratification meeting in the splendid new Town Hall on the 23rd of July. It is in every way a fine thing, and the Republicans are cordially invited. A big delegation of our people ought to go down and help in the Winchester wide-awake.

The "Snowball" stocking, which we advertised for the Shaw Stocking Co. of Lowell, is the best made. It is in every way a fine thing, and the Republicans are cordially invited. A big delegation of our people ought to go down and help in the Winchester wide-awake.

Without intending to do so mention of the opening concert by the Common by the National Band, Wednesday evening, last week, was omitted in these columns. It was one of the very best of the National Band given here and was listened to with great pleasure by a large crowd of people. This Band always gives good entertainments, but the one mentioned was exceptionally good.

Particular attention is called to the advertisement in this paper of the sale by auction of one of the most desirable real estate in the beautiful and prosperous village of Stoneham. Readers of the JOURNAL will at once remember the property as one of the most conspicuous and beautiful situated on the principal thoroughfare of the town. It is to be sold at 3 o'clock in the afternoon next Tuesday at 3 o'clock.

A message to Dea. G. R. Gage in a letter received a few days since by Dr. James Chas. of Winchester, from his father, Rev. Dr. March, was dated Sagamore, May 4, and conveyed the encouraging intelligence to his people here that he had stood the long journey much better than he might now be expected to, and that he is now in excellent physical condition. He cannot tell precisely when his return to the city will be, but hopes to be at home in season to take up his autumn work at his beginning.

Woburn made a sort of half-holiday on Monday on account of its being Bunker Hill day. The day was spent in various ways, but the 17th of June is because she was the daughter of a Revolutionary soldier, and she was the daughter of a Revolutionary soldier.
